

National Preservation Month 2016 Lemon Grove, California

The Lemon Grove Historical Society will open a new art exhibit at the Parsonage Museum, "In the Garden: New Landscapes by Ed Roxburgh," that is linked to Lemon Grove's long tradition of flower and vegetable gardens, and rhapsodic poems about same. An open house event for the exhibit will take place on May 7, 11 a.m. – 6:30 p.m. and will include tours of the Parsonage Museum and the adjacent H. Lee House. The Parsonage Museum, 3185 Olive, is open Saturdays 11 a.m. - 2 p.m.; weekdays by appointment (call 619-460-4353 to reserve).

Food historian Carol Perkins will give a free lecture on "History Alive" about the culinary and folkloric impact of a century of community cookbooks, 1900-2000, on May 7 at 7 p.m. in the H. Lee House Cultural Center, 3205 Olive.

Lemon Grove Historical Society will sponsor a screening of the riveting Vietnam documentary, "Brothers in War," on May 28 at 2 p.m. in the Lemon Grove Library, 3001 School Lane (619-463-9819), as part of the Memorial Day Weekend. This acclaimed documentary is shown as part of the recurring series The Remembrance Project, an initiative of the Lemon Grove Historical Society, in partnership with the Lemon Grove Library, to explore vital moments in American history and their impact on the local citizenry.

For further information about these events or other history related activities, please contact the Lemon Grove Historical Society: (619) 460-4353, or www.lghistory.org.