XI. NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACE DISCUSSION AND ACTION ITEMS

A. FARPOINT SITE, NEW APPLICATION

Chairman Grenda instructed the audience, and those supporting and opposing the nomination, that it was the Commission’s desire to act on these items in a fair and timely manner. To that end, he imposed time limits on the public discussion of each item, twenty minutes for those supporting and the same for the opposition, followed with a five minute rebuttal by each side. The time will sound at the end of each period, after which public discussion will close and the Commissioners will discuss and then act on the items. He asked if any Commissioner wished to recuse him or herself from the discussion of either item. There being no response, he allowed public comments.

PUBLIC DISCUSSION

Dr. Gary Stickel, of Environmental Research Archaeologist and the applicant, spoke in support of the nomination.

The property owner was not in attendance, but submitted opposition in writing.

Commissioner Grenda closed the public discussion on the Farpoint Site application.

Chairman Grenda opened the floor for additional comments and questions on the consent calendar to be heard out of agenda order. Takashi Tjusita thanked the Commission for listing the Site of the First Vacaville Buddhist Church as a Point of Historical Interest.

Commissioner Grenda opened Commissioners’ discussion on the Farpoint Site application.

COMMISSIONERS’ DISCUSSION

Chairman Grenda asked for a motion. Commissioner Fernandez moved “that CA LAN 451, also known as Farpoint site, meets National Register Criterion D at the local level of significance, and the Commission recommends that the SHPO forward the nomination to the Keeper of the National Register of Historic Places, with an amended period of significance of 9000 to 2800 years before present, and the cultural affiliation Clovis, which appears on page four of the application, removed.”

The motion was debated.

Commissioner Fernandez revised the motion to state “that CA LAN 451, also known as Farpoint Site, meets National Register Criterion D at the local level of significance, and the Commission recommends that the SHPO forward the nomination to the Keeper of the National Register for a determination of eligibility, with an amended period of significance of 9000 to 2800 years before present; the cultural affiliation with Clovis, which appears on page four of the nomination, removed; and an acknowledgment that a Clovis point has been found on the site in a buried context.” Commissioner Moss seconded the motion. Action: The motion was adopted after debate: 5 ayes, 0 nays, 1 abstention.

The Commission recessed for lunch at 11:45 a.m.

The Commission reconvened at 12:49 p.m.

PUBLIC COMMENT (HEARD OUT OF AGENDA ORDER)
