Voters Decide On No Commercialism For El Camino Real

El Camino Real, running through Burlingame, known far and wide as a beauty spot, was the main issue in yesterday's election, which has been aptly termed the Burlingame Battle of Ballots. Residents of this city voted to retain it as it is pictured above and their ballots recorded an overwhelming majority against a plan to convert it into business uses or to commercialize it in any manner.

Ira Thompson (1825 - 1874)
(No stone)

Leader of the first wagon train to arrive in this area.
They left Independence, Mo. in June, 1850
and headed west hoping to find gold.

They traveled for 14 months and endured many adversities and hardships.

Arriving in 1851 at a site, later to become El Monte, they decided to stay. He established the first stage depot and later built the "Willow Grove Hotel".

He was the first Postmaster of El Monte located in his hotel.
